Gary J. Waxman, MD Anesthesiology

Dr. Waxman earned his medical degree from the University of Maryland in Baltimore, MD, in 1975 after receiving his Bachelor of Science in Biology at Emory University in 1971. He completed General Surgery Residencies at the University of Maryland in 1977 and St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore in 1978; then completed an Anesthesiology Residency at the University of Maryland in 1981. Dr. Waxman completed a Fellowship in Neuroanesthesia, Pediatric Anesthesia, and Cardiac Anesthesia at the University of Maryland in 1981.

As an anesthesiologist, Dr. Waxman conducts a pre-operative evaluation with his patients prior to their surgery, providing them with information about the surgical procedures they are about to undergo and the recommended type of anesthesia. He then consults with the surgical team to create a plan tailored to each individual patient, ensuring their comfort and safety. Follow-up with his patients is an integral component of the individualized plan of care.

Dr. Waxman is a Diplomate of the American Board of Anesthesiology. Some of the professional organizations in which he is a member are the American Medical Association, American Society of Anesthesiologists, and Virginia Society of Anesthesiologists.
