Stephen P. White, DO Anesthesiology

Dr. White earned his medical degree from Des Moines University-College of Osteopathic Medicine and Surgery in Des Moines, IA, in 1990 after receiving his Bachelor of Science in Zoology at the University of Massachusetts in 1986 in Amherst, MA. He completed his Anesthesiology Residency in 1995 at Yale University School of Medicine: Yale-New Haven Hospital in New Haven, CT, where he also served as Chief Resident in his last year. Dr. White's residency training included the subspecialties of Cardiac, TPV, Chronic Pain, Pediatric, Obstetrical and Ambulatory Surgery Anesthetics.

Dr. White believes in establishing a high level of understanding and comfort with his patients by keeping them well informed about what to expect before, during and after their surgical and diagnostic procedures. This is also beneficial in helping them know what they can do to help in their own pre- and post-operative care.

Dr. White is board certified by the American Board of Anesthesiology and is a member of the American Society of Anesthesiologists and the Virginia Society of Anesthesiologists, among other professional societies. In his leisure time, he enjoys golf, hiking, fishing, horseback riding, ceramics, cooking and basketball.
