Andrew David Galbreath, DO Neurology

Dr. Galbreath earned his Doctorate of Osteopathy degree from Michigan State University in East Lansing, MI, in 2004 after receiving his bachelor's degree at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor in 1997. Dr. Galbreath performed a traditional rotating internship at Sparrow Health System, affiliated with Michigan State University-College of Osteopathic Medicine, in Lansing and completed his neurology residency at Duke University in Durham, NC, in 2005 and 2008, respectively. He continued his education by earning a fellowship in Neuromuscular Medicine in 2009.

Dr. Galbreath joined the experts at Sentara Neurology Specialists as a fellowship-trained neurologist with expertise in caring for a wide range of nerve and muscle diseases such as muscular dystrophies, neuropathies, ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease), and myasthenia gravis.

Dr. Galbreath is a member of the American Academy of Neurology, the American Medical Association, the American Osteopathic Association and the American Association of Neuromuscular and Electrodiagnostic Medicine. When he is not at work, Dr. Galbreath enjoys spending time with his wife and two young daughters, listening to music, and participating in various sports activities.
