Pamela S. Evans, MD Neurology

Dr. Evans earned her medical degree from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in Chicago, IL in 1995 after receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree in Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Cellular Biology at Northwestern University in Evanston, IL, in 1987. She completed her internship in the Department of Internal Medicine at the Medical College of Virginia Hospitals in 1996, where she also completed her residency in Neurology in 1999.

Before joining Sentara Neurology Specialists, Dr. Evans specialized in neurology at private practices in North Carolina, where she served patients of all ages. Her experience includes Chief of the Medical Section at Albermarle Hospital from 2006 until 2008. While there, she served as leader of a stroke team that developed acute stroke protocol and provided the community with stroke screenings. She also gave educational presentations to physician, nursing, EMS, and community groups.

Dr. Evans is board certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. She is on the Stroke Council of the American Heart Association, and is a member of the American Academy of Neurology.
